MRS. I. N. DESLAURIERS
(née Cath. Mullen)
1893

OTTAWA, December 31st, 1893.

TO MR. I.-N. DESLAURIERS.

DEAR FRIEND,

Some years ago, I undertook to write the genealogy of my family, and, apart from its usefulness, experienced much pleasure in becoming acquainted with the names of those who preceded me in this life.

It occurred to me that a similar work, concerning your family, would have for yourself and others concerned a like interest. I therefore decided to compile it.

Part of the genealogical notes I have gathered, are a reproduction of all that has been published in the Dictionnaire Généalogique by Monsignor Tanguay concerning your family; the rest, is the result of my own researches and work.

To these notes, I have added everything that appeared to me of interest, viz: translated copies of all certificates of baptism, marriage and interment of your ancestors, from generation to generation down to yourself, in cases where it has been possible to procure them; also, such other documents as would recall to the memory of your family many pleasing events, and your own popularity among your numerous friends.

I have thought that some illustrations would add more interest to these pages and, for that purpose, I have selected :

1. Your portrait, photographed by Topley, in 1891.
2. That of Mrs. Deslauriers, photo. by Jarvis, in 1893.
3. The compiler's, photo. by Topley, in 1891.
4. A group of a part of your family, photo. by the compiler, in 1892.
5. Your hospitable home, No. 426, Besserer street, photo. by the compiler, in 1893.
6. A shooting scene, photo. by the compiler, in 1891.
7. A group of the Champion Shooting Team of the St. Hubert Gun Club, photo. by Topley, in 1893.

By the last two it is shown that, like your ancestor Augustin—who was a soldier—, you have known how to handle a gun skilfully, of which, no better evidence could be produced than “The Mail” trophy, and the 100 ducks and 57 snipe hanging around our shooting shanty. Your faithful “Mary-Ann”, as you and your friends call your gun, has achieved many other feats which it is superfluous to mention, enough having been said to show your ability.

In the APPENDICES, you will find :

- A. An Address presented to you and Mrs. Deslauriers, by your friends on the occasion of your Silver-Wedding, or 25th anniversary of your marriage, 1883.
- B. An Address presented to you by the Members of No. 1 Company, Governor General's Foot Guards, on your promotion to the post of Colour-Sergeant of that Company, 1884.
- C. A letter written to you by Capt. A. H. Todd, on your retirement from No. 1 Company, G : G : F : G :, 1887.
- D. An Address presented to you by Officers and Men of No. 1 Company, G : G : F : G :, 1887.

- E. Some correspondence with reference to the Mullen family.
- F. A short genealogy of the same.
- G. A statement of your travels, according to your own diary.
- H. A few facts respecting the St. Hubert Gun Club, of which, you are a prominent member.
- I. The compiler's last word : one of sorrow.

Now, before closing, I have an agreeable duty to fulfil : it is to dedicate to you and your worthy wife in particular these few pages, to the interest of which you have both largely contributed ; also, to your sons, daughters and sons-in-law, as a token of sincere friendship and heart-felt gratitude for the many kindnesses shown me, and in remembrance of the happy moments we have spent together, which, I will ever remember amongst the happiest ones of my life.

Yours very sincerely,

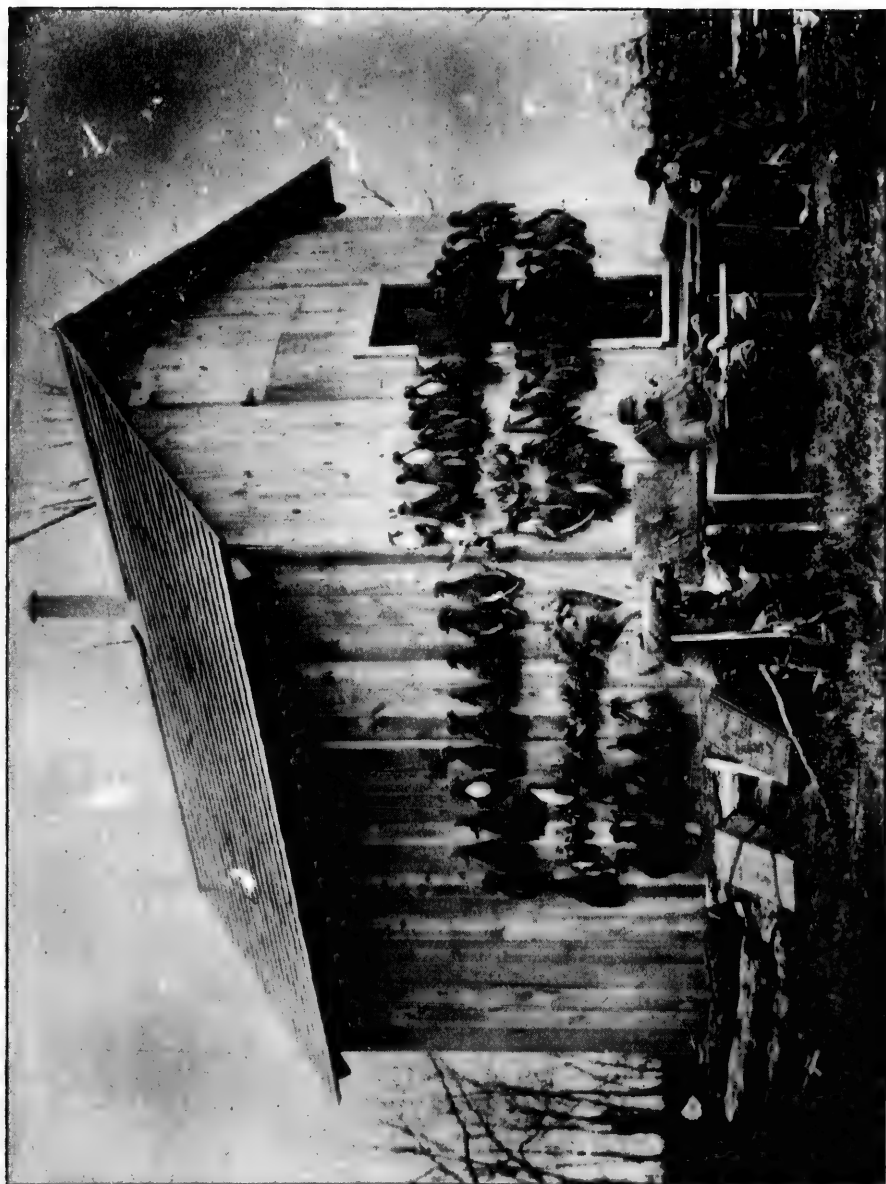

L. H. FILTEAU.

LOUIS-HONORÉ FILTEAU.

Born at St. Nicholas, County of Levis, Province of Quebec, 27 June, 1844; son of Benjamin Filteau, farmer, by the late Marcelline Martineau. Educated at the Seminary of Quebec. Civil Service clerk, in the Department of Public Works, from March 1870 to Oct. 1879; and from that date, in the Department of Railways and Canals.

SHOOTING SHANTY.

Sixteen feet by thirteen; situated on the north shore of the river Ottawa, on the ridge between that river and the marsh, about two miles below the village of L'Ange-Gardien, county of Ottawa.—I. N. Deslauriers, A. W. Throop, clerk, Post Office Department; R. G. Dalton, clerk, Department of Indian Affairs; J. E. W. Currier, clerk, Department of Railways and Canals.

EXPLANATIONS.

1. The signs : †, * and @, which accompany the name of a place or of a church, and are afterwards seen after letters : b, m and i, represent the name of the locality or of the church where the certificates of baptism, marriage and interment, have been recorded and, by this, the frequent repetition of the same name is avoided.

2. Letters b, m and i, stand for : baptism or baptized, marriage or married, interment or interred.

3. The roman figure, before or after a name, indicates the degree of filiation.

(1) Commonly called John. In 1847, young Deslauriers, then 12 years old, entered the service of one Mr. W. F. Wood, lumber merchant (now in London, Eng.), whose residence was on the Cap Rouge Road, between Mount Hermon Cemetery and the Governors' residence or Spencer-Wood. On entering Mr. Wood's service, which he left 10 years afterwards in the fall of 1857, young Deslauriers was required by him to answer to the name of John instead of Isidore. This is the reason why Mr. Deslauriers was, from that time, better known under the former than under the latter name.—In 1852, Mr. Deslauriers, having nothing to do while Mr. Wood was in England, spent the winter in Bytown (now Ottawa), in the service of Mr. Joseph Aumond, lumber merchant.

(1) Born on the morning of 14 Oct., at St-Hilaire Station, on the Grand Trunk Railway, County of Rouville, Province of Quebec. On the 13 October, about 10 o'clock P. M., Mr. Deslauriers went for the Dr Larose, whose residence was at a considerable distance on the other side of the Richelieu river. There was, near the railway bridge, a bad canoe which Mr. Deslauriers took to cross the river after putting a stone at the stern in order to keep the bow above the water. When the doctor arrived, he refused to cross the river in such a canoe, and went for a better one which he found at a short distance.

(2) Thos. Valiquet, Station-Agent; Catharine Blanchet, his wife.

(3) The family was then moving from Quebec to Ottawa, the new seat of Parliament. Mr. Deslauriers could not be present at the baptism, having in charge two car loads of furniture which he was obliged to follow. His wife, mother (Marguerite Pepin) and children: Adelaide, Louis, Isidore and Marie-Catherine, the newly-born, left for Ottawa where Mr. Deslauriers had prepared a house to receive them, after having spent a fortnight at St-Hilaire Station.

(4) Soly, François-Xavier-Isaïe, born 29 Jany. 1832, at Sainte-Marie de Manoir, son of Pierre Soly and of Théotiste Benjamin; ordained at St-Hyacinthe 17 May 1856; vicaire at Sorel; 1858, at the bishop's palace of St-Hyacinthe; 1860, curé of St-Hilaire; 1866, of St-Jean-Baptiste; 1868, of La Présentation; 1893, (retired) Seminary of St-Hyacinthe.

ADDRESS presented to Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Deslauriers, by their friends on the occasion of their Silver-Wedding, or 25th anniversary of their marriage. Taken from an Ottawa newspaper.

"SILVER-WEDDING."

"Presentation to Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Deslauriers.

"Last evening (19 Jany.), a large number of friends and acquaintances met at the residence of Mr. John Deslauriers, of the Department of Railways and Canals, and presented that gentleman and his amiable better half with the following address, which was elaborately illuminated and engrossed. The occasion was the anniversary of the silver-wedding of that gentleman and lady.

"TO MR. AND MRS. I. N. DESLAURIERS,

"A few of your numerous friends deem it a pleasing duty to offer you, on this the twenty-fifth anniversary of your marriage, their congratulations and heart-felt wishes for your future happiness and that of your family.

"On numerous occasions, we have enjoyed ourselves under your roof and partaken of your unbounded hospitality, and in order to perpetuate the remembrance of this joyful anniversary, we beg of you the acceptance of the accompanying slight token of esteem.

"We pray that Divine Providence may grant you many more happy years, and we trust that some of us will be spared to celebrate your Golden-Wedding.

"(Signed) F. McCaffrey, A. Laurin, C. Dion, P. Rivet, A. Charron, H. Thorbahn, A. Thornton, I. Gagnon, J. Côté, J.-Eugène Dion, H. Laflamme, P. Rochon, L.-D. Dion, J.-E. Méthot, A. Bureau, A.-A. Dion, E. Richard, A. Berthiaume, J. Goodall, A.-E. Dion, N. Bureau, A. D'Aoust, J. Rattey, W. Kennedy, F. Gingras, O. Forêt, J. Lackey, J. Smith, J.-B.-A. Pigeon, F. Desloges, H. Deslauriers, L.-N. Fortier, F.-X. Myrand, S. Iliff.

"The gift accompanying the address, was an elegant silver ice pitcher and tray suitably inscribed.

"Mr. Deslauriers, although taken by surprise, made an appropriate reply, and a pleasant evening was subsequently spent."

This address was dated 19 Jany, 1883, and on each side, in the illuminated border, were the figures 25, with the following quotations from the Scriptures, written on scrolls: "What God hath joined, let no man put asunder. Thy children shall be like olive plants around thy table." And at the top, the years 1858-1883.

The inscription on the pitcher reads as follows: "Presented to MR. and MRS. DESLAURIERS by their friends, on the 25th anniversary of their wedding, Jan. 19th 1883."

APPENDIX B.

ADDRESS presented to Mr. I. N. Deslauriers by the Members of No. 1 Company, Governor General's Foot Guards, on his promotion to the post of Colour-Sergeant of that Company.

1884

"To Colour-Sergeant Deslauriers,

" "A" COMPANY, GOV : GEN : FT : GUARDS.

"We, the undersigned, Members of "A" Company, Gov : Gen : Ft : Guards, take the opportunity, on your promotion to the post of Colour-Sergeant of the Company, to express to you our united sentiments of admiration and appreciation for the soldier-like and affable manner in which you have from first to last discharged your duties in the Company, not only as Senior Non-Com : Officer in the ranks, but as a Member of the Company ever since its formation, in 1872.

"It is specially when in Camp that your excellent qualities of order, economy and good management have so largely contributed to our enjoyment when under canvas, and have so justly earned for you the title of "The Father of the Company."

"As a further expression of our appreciation of your long and valuable services, we ask you to accept of the accompanying gift which we present with the hope that you may long be spared to discharge the duties of Colour-Sergeant to No. 1 Coy : Gov : Gen : Ft : Guards.

"(Signed) A. Hamlyn Todd, Captain ; H. H. Gray, Lieut. ; Geo. R. White, Lieut. ; Charles F. Winter, Sergt. ; Plunket B. Taylor, Corp. ; Edward Taylor, Thos. W.

Fuller, E. Creighton, L. du Plessis, M. Sargent, F. W. Strong, Joseph Plunkett, Reg. M. Gallwey, R. E. Watts, H. P. Brumell, C. M. Wiggins, H. F. McNaughton, J. A. D. Holbrook, P. M. Côté, J. H. Lynch, A. E. Nash, H. T. Dennis, Herbert G. Todd, J. W. Hawley, F. A. Gordon, J. Mullin, Chs. D. Fripp, E. G. Smith."

This address was beautifully illuminated by Mr. Alf. Côté, after a military design (drums, flags, rifles, centry-box, soldier, beaver, &c.,) made by Mr. J. Aubé.

The gift presented was a silver water pitcher artistically inscribed as follows : " Presented to Colour-Sergt. J. N. DESLAURIERS, by the Officers, Non-Com : Officers and Men of " A " Company, Gov : Gen : Foot Guards, Rideau Camp, 27th June, 1884."

LETTER written by Capt. A. H. Todd to Mr. I. N. Deslauriers on his retirement from No. 1 Company, Governor General's Foot Guards.

1887

" OTTAWA, 7th May, 1887.

" DEAR JOHN,

" It is with the greatest regret that I have to acknowledge your letter of yesterday, stating that you are compelled to resign from No. 1 Company, in which you have so faithfully served since its organization—owing to your time being fully occupied with other matters. There is no person in the Company whose loss I could feel as much as yours, because you have always set such a good example to the men in the conscientious manner in which you have discharged your duties, and the hearty and active interest you have ever shewn in the Company's welfare. For these and other reasons, I feel very loath to part with you, but, I suppose, we must submit to the inevitable as I see by your letter, that you are bent on going.

" Wouldn't you like to retire on a Staff Sergeantship that would keep you in the Regiment without anything to do ? If so, let me know. Jot down on a piece of paper your military record—a few facts—, and let me have it.

" Yours faithfully,

" (Signed) A. HA YN TODD.

ADDRESS presented to Mr. I. N. Deslauriers by Officers and Men of No. 1 Company, Governor General's Foot Guards, on his retirement.

1887

" OTTAWA, June 13th, 1887.

" COLOUR-SERGEANT,

" JOHN DESLAURIERS,

" The Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of No. 1 Company, Governor General's Foot Guards, cannot permit you to retire from the Company without conveying to you their warm appreciation of the many sterling qualities which have endeared you to all who have had the good fortune to be brought into contact with you.

"Connected with the active Militia of Canada for over a quarter of a century—having enlisted under the Honourable Joseph Cauchon, in 1861, and served subsequently in the Civil Service Regiment, in Colonel White's Company, and finally, in No. 1 Company of the Governor General's Foot Guards, since the organization of the corps—, you have ever been the most attentive at drill and most efficient as a marksman.

"To you, is due much of the prestige which is attached to our Company—always Number One while Colour-Sergeant Deslauriers was with it. First in everything to promote the interests of the Regiment and of the Company, your wise counsel and good example will be long remembered and treasured, and the memory of the good old days when "Father John" ruled the camp mess will remain green for ever in the minds of those who served with you.

"It is with profound regret that we see you leave us, but we hope and trust that the evening of your life may be blessed with every good gift that can be bestowed from above upon one who has been so long a faithful soldier.

Correspondence with reference to the Mullen family.

" Department of Railways and Canals.

" OTTAWA, 17th May, 1893.

'To the Roman Catholic Parish Priest,

" Beragh,

" Co. of Tyrone,

" Ireland.

" REVEREND SIR,

" I am working at the genealogy of the family of the late Michael Mullins or Mullen and his wife Bridget Heffernan. The former died in Beragh, and was interred there; his wife, emigrated with her children—3 daughters and 1 son—to Canada, about 1842.

" What I would like to have, is a copy of every certificate of baptism and burial of every child of Michael Mullen and of Bridget Heffernan, recorded in the registers of your parish church, Beragh, from about year 1825 to 1842; also, copy of certificate of burial of Michael Mullen, previous to the last mentioned year.

" You may take all the time required to furnish me with the information.

" You will please send me your account, and I shall pay you in the manner you will indicate to me.

" You will confer a great favour on me, in taking my demand into consideration.

" I have the honour to be,

" Reverend Sir,

" Your obedient servant,

L. H. FILTEAU.

" To Rev. James Smith,

" Beragh,

" Diocese of Armagh,

" Ireland.

" REVEREND SIR,

" On the 17th May last, I wrote a letter, copy of which is enclosed, addressed to the Roman Catholic parish priest, Beragh, Co. of Tyrone, Ireland.

" As I have not yet received a reply, I fear my letter was not delivered for want of proper address.

" To-day, I am writing to you hoping I will be more successful.

" Will you be kind enough to tell me if I may entertain any hope of getting what is asked for by my letter of 17th May last.

" I remain,

" Reverend Sir,

" Your obedient servant,

" L. H. FILTEAU.

" *To His Grace Most Rev. Michael Logue,
Archbishop and Lord Primate of all Ireland,
Armagh,*

" Ireland.

" MY LORD,

" On the 17th May and 6th July last, I wrote (copies of letters enclosed) to the parish priest of Beragh, asking him to furnish me with copies of certificates of baptism and burial of the children of Michael Mullen and of Bridget Heffernan, his wife, from the year 1825 to 1842, but I have not yet received a reply to any of my letters for want, I presume, of sufficient address.

" It is very important for me to get these certificates, and Your Lordship would confer a great favour in helping me to secure them.

" I have the honour to be,

" My Lord,

" Your most obedient and humble servant,

" L. H. FILTEAU.

In reply to the above letters, the following was received.

Beragh, Co. Tyrone (Ireland),

November, 3rd, 1893.

" To Mr. L. H. Filteau,

" Dept. of Railways and Canals,

" Ottawa,

" Canada.

" DEAR SIR,

" The baptismal register of this parish goes back only to the year 1832, and even after that year, I believe it was kept badly. I could find therefore only two entries—from which I give extracts—of the baptism of Michael Mullen's children.

" As you said in your letter I could take my own time to find out the information required, I concluded the case was not urgent, and I did not hurry. I was on that account more than surprised and amazed that you should write to my superior in reference to the matter.

" I enclose on another sheet some information I got about the family.

" I will send certificate of death of Michael Mullen, if it can be found.

" With regard to fee for trouble and which you so kindly spoke of, I am making repairs and improvements to my churches at present, and, if you send a subscription for that charitable object, it will be very acceptable.

" Yours very truly,

" JAS. SMYTH, P. P.

" CATHERINE, daughter of Michael Mullen and Bridget Heffernan, was baptized 13th January, 1833, the sponsors being ; James Kerr and Jane Mullen.

" MARGARET, daughter of Michael Mullen and Bridget Heffernan, was baptized 25th August, 1834, the sponsors being : Peter Starrs and Sarah Devin.

" I certify the above are correct extracts from the baptismal register of St-Mary's catholic church, Beragh, Co. Tyrone, Archdiocese of Armagh.

" 3rd November, 1893.

" JAMES SMYTH, P. P.

The information referred to in the above letter, is the following,—no date.

" I have known the deceased Michael Mullen and his wife, who, formerly owned a general store in this village, Beragh.

" They were respectably connected in the townland of Foremass, parish of Errigal-Kieran, and about one mile from this place.

" The late Michael's brother, Mathew, lived to a great age ; his daughter Mrs. Donnelly, her husband, and a numerous family, live comfortable on their farm in Foremass.

(Signed) " MATHEW RODGERS, SENR.

The following, was written in answer to the above letter from Rev. Mr. Smyth.

" Dept. of Railways and Canals,

" OTTAWA, 22nd Nov., 1893.

" To Rev. James Smyth, P. P.,

" Beragh,

" Co. Tyrone,

" Ireland.

" REVEREND SIR,

" I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated 3rd November instant, which, I received on the 13th, with reference to the Mullen family, and I am very thankful to you for the information it conveys to me.

"I beg to apologize for having unintentionally displeased you in writing to your superior. I attributed the delay of your not answering my letters, not at all to negligence on your part, but entirely to a possible erroneous or insufficient address which your Archbishop would have been in a position to correct or supplement.

"I am expecting any other extract from certificates you may find in your parish registers respecting this family as asked for in my previous letters.

"One boy: Michael, and one girl: Alice, were born after Margaret, 25th August, 1834.

"Their father, Michael Mullen, was buried at Beragh, possibly between 1837 and 1842, but not after the latter year.

"If you can find their certificates and furnish me with extracts therefrom, I shall be very much obliged to you.

"Will you kindly look over the certificates of baptism of Catherine, 13th January, 1833, and Margaret, 25th August, 1834, from which you sent me extracts, in order to ascertain whether the day of birth is mentioned or not in them, and by whom baptized.

"Enclosed, you will find a post office money order in your favour, for the sum of £1.0.0, which amount, you may receive at any time, at Omagh post office.

"I have the honour to be,

"Reverend Sir,

"Your obedient servant,

"L. H. FILTEAU.

" DEAR SIR,

" You will see from the enclosed letter, that there was no official record of deaths kept before the year 1862. If you require further information regarding the Mullen family, I will try to get it for you. Hoping I did not inconvenience you very much by my delaying so long in replying to your letters.

" I am very faithfully yours,

" DEAR SIR,

" I beg to acknowledge your letter (of 22nd Nov. last) with enclosure of £1.0.0, and to thank you very sincerely for it.

" You would have had an earlier reply, only I was in search of some additional information about the Mullen family. So far, I have got nothing new.

" In former times, the date of birth was not entered in the Parochial Register, only the date of baptism, and not unfrequently even that was omitted.

" I shall send you any further information I may receive. Again, thanking you for your kindness.

APPENDIX G.

STATEMENT of Mr. I. N. Deslauriers' travels, according to his own diary.

1. In 1871, Mr. I.-N. Deslauriers, in company with the Hon. H. L. Langevin, minister of Public Works, Mr. J. W. Tilley, private secretary, and the late Mr. A. Achintre, French writer, visited Utah Territory, California, British Columbia and their principal cities, notably : Salt Lake City, the place of residence of Brigham Young, chief of the polygamist sect of Mormons, San Francisco and Victoria.

They left Ottawa, on 28th July, and arrived home again, on 8th October, being absent 2 months and 10 days.

2. On Thursday, 27th May, 1875, Mr. I.-N. Deslauriers, in company with the Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, Prime-minister and minister of Public Works, and Mrs. Mackenzie, left Ottawa for Quebec whence they sailed for Europe, on the 29th, per steamer "Moravian". They visited : Ireland, England, Scotland (Mr. Mackenzie's native country), and France, with their principal cities.

They left Liverpool for home on steamer "Prussian"; arrived in Quebec, on Monday, 30th August, and the next day, they were in Ottawa, after 3 months' absence.

This journey, was unexpected on the part of Mr. Deslauriers : it was only at the pressing request of Mr. and Mrs. Mackenzie, and while on the boat between Montreal and Quebec, that he decided to undertake it.

3. In the summer 1882, Mr. I.-N. Deslauriers, in company with Mr. James Goodwin, contractor, of Ottawa, visited : Ireland, England and France. They sailed for Europe per steamer "Parisian" returning by the same steamer.

Mr. Deslauriers, has not kept a diary of this trip which lasted 1 month.

4. On 4th June, 1883, Mr. I.-N. Deslauriers, with the Hon. Sir Charles Tupper, minister of Railways and Canals, left Ottawa for Montreal and Quebec, leaving the latter city on 14th, by rail, for Halifax whence they sailed per steamer "Caspian", on 18th June, for Europe. They visited : Ireland, England, France and their principal cities.

While in London, Sir Charles Tupper, received a cablegram from Mr. James Goodwin, of Ottawa, asking him to allow Mr. Deslauriers to meet him at Queenstown, Ireland. The permission was granted, and Mr. Deslauriers, in company with Mr. Goodwin, visited Paris a third time. Both sailed from Liverpool for home, on 20th September, per steamer "Parisian".

Mr. Goodwin, who had visited Europe for the benefit of his health, died in Montreal, on 30th September, and Mr. Deslauriers arrived in Ottawa, with the body, on 1st October, after having been absent 4 months.

5. On 27th September, 1885, Mr. I.-N. Deslauriers, with Sir Charles Tupper, visited British Columbia and returned to Ottawa, on 18th October.

6. In 1893, and in company with the Honourable George E. Foster, minister of Finance; R. A. Angers, minister of Agriculture; and Philippe Landry, Senator; Mr. Deslauriers visited the Columbian World's Fair at Chicago, Winnipeg, Vancouver, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, &c., &c.

They left Ottawa, on 3rd October, and returned on 15th November, after having been absent 1 month and 12 days.

7. Apart from these comparatively long journeys, Mr. Deslauriers, has accompanied princes of the Royal Family on their visits to this country: the Prince of Wales, in July, 1860, and Prince Alfred, in 1861; has crossed this continent several times, from Halifax to Vancouver, in private car, with the ministers of the Crown or other parties.

APPENDIX H.

St-Hubert Gun Club of Ottawa.

Founded 22 February, 1884, by Jean-Charles Taché, Esq., Clerk, in the Department of Public Works, with Messrs. I.-N. Deslauriers and P. Trudeau as first members, this Club is in a flourishing condition, and has a good record.

Some of the best marksmen that can be found in the Dominion, among others : Messrs. P. Trudeau, R. G. Dalton, A. W. Throop, W. J. Johnstone, J. Locke, I.-N. Deslauriers, George R. White, S. A. White, W. McMahon, Dr. Alex. Martin and C. L. Panet, all of Ottawa, are members of this Club.

Several valuable prizes or trophies won years ago in competing matches held at St-Johns, P. Q., Montreal, Ottawa, Carleton Place and Toronto, are still unchallenged.

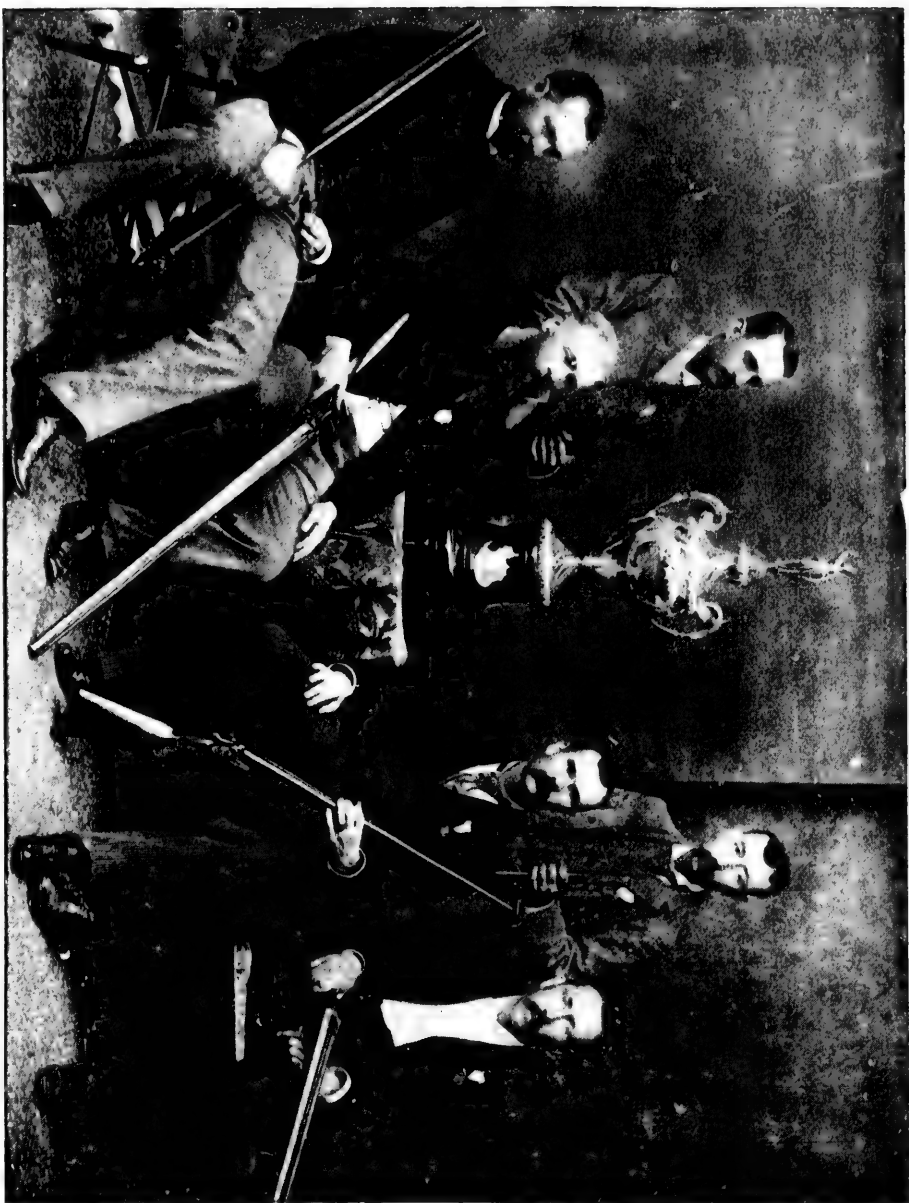

"The Mail" trophy, as illustrated, is a donation of the proprietors of The Toronto Daily Mail newspaper, and deserves special mention as it is by far the most valuable: being worth $350.00. It was won, 7 June, 1893, by a score of 183 against 175, out of a possible 200.

Mr. Deslauriers, treasurer, is the life of the Club, and it is not too much to say that his withdrawal would entail its destruction. His genial and amiable disposition, makes him a universal favourite with the members.

Mr. L.-H. Filteau, is the present secretary of the Club.

A brass gilded medal has been struck to perpetuate the memory of the Club.

APPENDIX I.

The compiler's last word: one of sorrow.

The pleasure experienced by the author on the completion of this work, as a token of sincere friendship and regard, was not to remain long without alloy: death has come and marked the last page with its funereal seal by adding a new victim to the list, already long, that is found in it.

TO THE MEMORY OF

---

Mr. Leblanc, was born in Ottawa on 28 and baptized on 29 October, 1866. He died in the 27 year of his age, at 9.30 P. M., on Thursday, 14 December, 1893, at his residence, No. 195, Augusta street, surrounded by his relatives and friends, after two days' illness only. His body was laid out at his father's residence, Mr. Etienne Leblanc, No. 232, St-Patrick street.

The funeral service took place, on Monday 18, at Notre-Dame church, amidst a large concourse of people.

The officiating priest was Monsignor J. O. Routhier, assisted by the Canons G. Bouillon and L. N. Campeau, of the Archbishop's Residence.

The attending physician was : Dr. Pierre St-Jean.

The pall-bearers were : Messrs. Hector Richard, Nelson Renaud, Octave Léveillé, A. Julien, Joseph Couillard, V. Faulkner, James Little and George Ward.

Undertaker : Mr. Edmond Gauthier.

Place of burial : Notre-Dame Cemetery, on the Montreal-Road.

We loved him in life, let us not forget him in death.

(ST. AMBROSE.)

R. I. P.

This MEMORIAL, is respectfully dedicated to Mrs. Leblanc in particular, and to the families of Messrs. I. N. Deslauriers and sons, E. Leblanc and A. A. Dion, as an expression of deep sorrow and a token of heart-felt sympathy, on the part of the author, in their sad bereavement.

Since the above is written, the little girl of the late Mr. Leblanc, Maria Florence-Irene, born 11 October, 1891, and who was ill for a couple of weeks, died (at 2.30 P. M.) and was buried on the afternoon of Friday, 22 December, 1893.

REMARKS

In the Dictionnaire Généalogique by Mgr. Tanguay, Vol. I, page 454, Augustin Normandeau and his wife Marie-Madeleine Sasseville, are mentioned as having had two sons of the same name Pierre, viz: "Pierre, baptized.....married 14 August 1719, to Marguerite Rancour.—Pierre, baptized 22 June 1697."

The compiler, having good reasons to believe that these two are but one and same person, has entered them as one in the list of the children of Augustin Normandeau and Marie-Madeleine Sasseville, at page 11 of this work.
